Corpora II, C. INDIVIDUALS IN CHARGE OF EVENTS. Each Society event must have one Society member appointed by the sponsoring branch in attendance and responsible for the general conduct of the event. Where an event involves only one type of Society activity, the responsible member is the appropriate branch officer, or someone designated by that officer. Where an event includes a variety of activities, the responsible member is the branch Seneschal or someone designated by the branch Seneschal. In addition, events including Society combat or combat-related activities must have at least one warranted marshal, designated by the Marshal of the sponsoring branch, in attendance and responsible for those activities.

“The term “Society event” refers to tournaments, feasts, and other activities whereby participants can display the results of their researches into period culture and technology in an environment which evokes the atmosphere of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. It also refers to educational activities involving either one-time classes or ongoing university organizations, and meetings where participants share skills or discuss the business of the group. All Society events must be sponsored by branches of the Society, registered with the Seneschal of the sponsoring branch and publicized at least to the membership of that branch, and conducted according to Society rules.” [Corpora II.A] “Formal actions and announcements with long-term impact on the Society may occur only at Society events for which the date, time and place have been published in advance in the appropriate kingdom newsletter. This includes Crown and Coronet Lists, Coronations and Investitures, appointment of officers, presentation of awards and titles, and proclamation of law and of the establishment or advancement of branches. However, deputy officers and officers below principality level need not be appointed at published events.” [Corpora II.B] “Each Society event must have one Society member appointed by the sponsoring branch in attendance and responsible for the general conduct of the event. Where an event involves only one type of Society activity, the responsible member is the appropriate branch officer, or someone designated by that officer. Where an event includes a variety of activities, the responsible member is the branch Seneschal or someone designated by the branch Seneschal. In addition, events including Society combat or combat-related activities must have at least one warranted marshal, designated by the Marshal of the sponsoring branch, in attendance and responsible for those activities.” [Corpora II.C] “Anyone may attend Society events provided he or she wears an attempt at pre-17th century dress, conforms to the provisions of the by-Laws and Corpora, complies with any other requirements (such as site fees or waivers) which may be imposed by the Society, and behaves like a lady or gentleman. However, the responsible officers may exempt attendees at business meetings and informal classes from the requirement to wear pre-17th century dress.” [Corpora II.D] See also Corpora IIE, “Duty to Enforce Requirements.”
